TUESDAY JANUARY 14th 2020

GUEST: SCOTT HAMILTON!

After a very long absence (13 years in fact) Scott Hamilton back with us, on tour from the greats of jazz, Scott shot to fame in the 1950s most were at that time, but with a full and Coleman Hawkins. Since those awards, and recorded more albums to this country and his touring quartet Dave Green on bass and Steve Brown on major star (unless it's deep snow email to get a place reserved. Mo

ENRIC PEIDRO QUINTET.

This one sounds good! The Anglo, maestro Ray (also occasional vocalist with his Jive Band, The Giants) is on tour with Spain's Superstar Jazzman, the superb sax man Enric. It's been many years since we have seen Ray, and of course it will be a first time visit for Enric. These two have a regular partnership with highly acclaimed gigs all over Europe, usually with Richard Busiakiewicz on piano, and Richard will be a part of the Quintet at Marlow. Ray, we are sure is well known to you, but if you want to check out Enric there is plenty on YouTube. Admission is £10

TUESDAY MAY 26th HOWARD ALDEN ON TOUR with ANDY PANAYI 8PM

For the last 20 years we have been proud to set up a gig to be the single jazz event in the annual Wycombe Arts Festival, and this is the star attraction for 2020! But as it is a Festival event it is an earlier start! Always rated as World's Number One Jazz Guitarist, the immaculate Howard Alden, prolific Concord Label recording artist, returns to Marlow after four years absence and will be joined by top British sax man Andy Panayi, Simon Woolf on bass and Denis Smith on drums. The Festival always need several rows of seats, so advance reservation is very strongly advised £10
